

SIX RACES AT JEROME PARK.

A CHILLY DAY AND A HEAVY TRACK FOR THE OPENING.

Himalaya, Dan K., Aranza, George Kinney, Aelia, and Disturbance Win the Horses.

A Race that Proved a Disappointment.

It was bleak and chilly at Jerome Park yesterday. People on the club house piazza and the grand stand kept their overcoats buttoned, and the benches on the club house mound were almost deserted. The track was in poor condition, and the horses kicked up mud with every step.

The prettiest race was made for the Nursery Stakes. It was for two-year-olds at $100 each, with $1,000 added, the second to receive $200 out of the stakes, three-quarters of a mile. G. L. Lorillard's Thackeray was top weight at 115 pounds, and Nonge and Water Lily lowest weights, at 107 pounds. The intermediates were Greystone, St. Paul, Ecuador, Leo, Casino, and Himalaya, all at 110 pounds. The betting was 3 to 1 against the Withers' pair, Nonge and Casino; 4 to 1 against Water Lily; 6 to 1 against Leo and St. Paul; 2 to 2 against Ecuador; 7 to 1 against Thackeray; 8 to 1 against Himalaya, and 10 to 1 against Graystone.

In the broad siding the horses were sent off in an excellent start. St. Paul jumped to the front, was leading when the bunch disengaged in the dip, and bobbed up again later in advance of the others, who had lost a good interval of time in this order around the turn into the stretch, when Nonge came up and joined in the struggle. Then Billy Donohue brought his whip down on Himalaya with a whack, and the horse responded by shooting to the front and winning in 1:30. Leo second, Nonge third.

Another good race was for the $500 purse, for three-year-olds and upward, at a distance of one mile. It was the Intermediates, won by King Fan at 113 pounds. Dan K. was 6 to 2 on Dan K., and against Head-and-Toe, another three-year-old, and Head-and-Toe shot off in the lead, pressed by King Fan, old Dan K. lying back. Positions barely shifted until into the dip, where King Fan moved up to the lead, and the others followed. King Fan was 1:39; 35, and the Crotchet increased her pace outside, with the Wave at 4:46:35. Both then lifted sheets and dashed off for home, while the others continued their racing. Head-and-Toe was the first to the first turn to this mark at 4:58:34. The Gracie turned at 4:59:16, the Fanny at 4:06:35; and the Wave, Oriva, Vixen, Nokomis, Gracie.

Once outside, a freshening breeze caught it from the southward and eastward, making it difficult to steer. The Gracie and Fanny continued. At 4:55 the Fanny split tactics with the Gracie, and when they came together, the Gracie led, and the Fanny followed. The Gracie, with which she had started, was still with which they handled their respective craft. At 1:35 the Crotchet held the lead of the River Hospital Island, with the Vixen and the Wave closing closely. Buoy 8 was turned as follows:

Crotchet, 11:50-30; Gracie, 12:54-30; Fanny, 12:58-30; Wave, 11:58-32; Vixen, 11:00-22; Buoy 8, Southwest Spit, thence to Sandy Hook Lightship, and return over the same course to the finish at Buoy 15, West Bank.

The Sailing Committee were Louis P. Hayard, F. O. D. Lugo, W. L. Sudman, A. H. Stevens, and E. C. L. Ladd.

The race had a flying start and crossed the line as follows:

Crotchet, 11:50-30; Gracie, 12:54-30; Fanny, 12:58-30; Wave, 11:58-32; Vixen, 11:00-22; Buoy 8, Southwest Spit, thence to Sandy Hook Lightship, and return over the same course to the finish at Buoy 15, West Bank.
